

Subject: RE:

Date: Monday, 25 March 2019 at 16:22:34 Greenwich Mean Time

From: Owen, Ruth

To: Alex Jukes

Great to hear! Some of the feedback we've had from school children is that Chair and Camel seem as if they are haunted, spooky like they are in a horror film!

Speak soon,

Ruth

From: Alex Jukes [mailto:Jukesa@edgehill.ac.uk]

Sent: 22 March 2019 21:49

To: Owen, Ruth <Ruth.Owen@westlancs.gov.uk>

Subject: FW:

Some good feedback for the record.

Alex

From: JACK BENNETT <23896892@edgehill.ac.uk>

Date: Friday, 22 March 2019 at 20:18

To: Alex Jukes <Jukesa@edgehill.ac.uk>

Subject: <no subject>

Hi Alex,

I'm a first year English Literature and Creative Writing student at EHU. I visited the Chapel Gallery in Ormskirk last week to see the Loop Effect exhibition. I loved 'Chair and Camel' and found myself perplexed and almost hypnotised by it!

I've started a book at the moment called 'Ekphrasis' where I've written poetry in response to works of art that seem to stand out to me. I'd love to do a response to 'Chair and Camel'. I was wondering if you could send an image of the chair and camel as I can't seem to find one on the internet, unfortunately.

Sorry if this was an odd request!

Thanks,
Jack.

Edge Hill University
Teaching Excellence Framework Gold Award

This message is private and confidential. If you have received this message in error, please notify the sender and remove it from your system. Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of Edge Hill or associated companies. Edge Hill University may monitor email traffic data and also the content of email for the purposes of security and business communications during staff absence.

This email and any files transmitted with it are confidential and may be legally privileged. They are intended solely for the use of the individual or entity to whom they are addressed. If you are not the addressee, you are not authorised to disclose, distribute, copy or use this e-mail or any attachment to it. If you have received this message in error please notify the sender immediately and permanently delete the e-mail and any attachments. Any views expressed in this communication are those of the individual sender and unless specifically stated or followed up in writing, the content cannot be taken to form a contract or to be an expression of the Council's position. This email message has been checked for the presence of computer viruses. The Council has taken reasonable steps to ensure this email and any attachments are virus free but it is the recipient's responsibility to ensure that they are.
